Getting to Know . . .

June Wasserman

Originally born and raised in Massachusetts, June Wasserman moved to Ridgecrest in 1970 because her husband got a job at China Lake. By that time she had received her Bachelors in Chemistry but neglected that study upon counseling offers from Cerro Coso.

June began at Cerro Coso in 1977, four years after it first opened, as a part-time instructor. She had just finished her Masters in counseling and started out teaching psychology and basic math with much side work with the re-entry program. While doing so she also ventured to work with mentally disabled adults at what is now called DART. After five years experience in the Community College system, she put her Masters to use and became a part-time counselor. Two years after that in 1983 she switched over to the full-time realm. She started out as a Special Services counselor and became the first C.A.R.E. club coordinator when it started in the early 1980's.

On the more personal side, Mrs. Wasserman has been married for thirty-seven years to a now retired husband, and has two sons that are engineers and mathematicians. In her spare time June loves to jog. She has participated in many triathlons and marathons and even plans on running ten miles to Inyokern the day after her retirement party. Aside from running she also likes to dance and is currently taking Ballroom Dancing.

Once retired, June plans to travel, exercise, visit with friends and family, and just have fun. She is proud to have spent so many years at Cerro Coso and still believes it a great college and a great place to work.

TIDBITS

- Garter snakes, though reptiles, do not lay eggs. They bear young, just as mammals do.
- The Millennium Dome is supported by 43 miles of high-strength cable which holds up 100,000 square meters of fabric. The translucent roof is 50 meters high at the center and strong enough to support a jumbo jet. The Dome could contain two Wembley Stadiums or the Eiffel Tower on its side. You could even fit the Great Pyramid of Giza inside it.
- The word sake, Japanese wine made from fermented rice, is shortened from the word sake-mizu, which translates to "prosperous waters."
- The training of the geisha, a professional female Japanese entertainer, begins at age 7. When she becomes accomplished in dancing, singing, and the social graces, she will then contract with an employer to entertain.
- During the Middle Ages, a popular warm drink for those who were sick was called a caudle. Wine or ale was mixed with eggs, bread, sugar, and spices and was used to soothe and heal the ill.
- Chocolate manufacturers use 40 percent of the world's almonds.
- Snails sleep a lot. In addition to several months of winter hibernation, they crawl into their shells to get out of the hot sun, which dries them, or heavy rain, which waterlogs them. Desert snails may even doze for three or four years.

Getting to Know . . .

Rudy Solidarios

Born and raised in the Philippines, Rudy wed in 1990. Three years later he was sponsored to move to the states and then came to Ridgecrest. A year later in 1994 he began work at Cerro Coso on call. In the two years following he became a permanent part time worker in the Child Development Center. In 1998 he moved to the main building and became a full time worker on the 2nd floor where he currently remains. Aside from Cerro Coso he also works as a part-time delivery guy for the Bangkok House Restaurant. In his spare time he enjoys working around the house whether that be cooking, cleaning, or maintaining the yard, and also spending time with his two kids who are almost twenty-one and eleven.

Chronicle Comedy

A man and his wife are dining at a table in a plush restaurant, and the husband keeps staring at an old drunken lady swinging her gin as she sits alone at a nearby table, until the wife asks, "Do you know her?"
"Yes," sighs the husband, "She's my ex-wife. She took to drinking right after we divorced seven years ago, and I hear she hasn't been sober since."
"My God!" says the wife, "Who would think a person could go on celebrating that long?"
