Student Conduct Hearing Panel Procedures

For the purposes of these Procedures, an Instructional Day is defined as any of the days noted on the official Academic Calendar of the College as an instructional day, excluding Saturdays and Sundays.

Student Conduct

The Student Conduct Hearing Panel shall only be convened to hear the following cases:

- Cases in which the College President or designee recommends suspension or expulsion of a student for violation of the Student Conduct Policy. (Education Code Sections 66017 or 76030)
- Cases involving suspensions and expulsions in which a student requests a second hearing to appeal his/her alleged violation of the Student Conduct Policy, based on relevant new evidence which exists that was previously unavailable and that would substantially affect the findings of the Hearing Panel. The Hearing Panel Chair of the first hearing shall determine whether new evidence is substantial enough to warrant a second hearing.

Student Conduct Charges and Hearing

1. The College President will determine and publicize which administrative office will receive and administer the following issues:
 - Student conduct charges
 - Student complaints
 - Complaints related to discrimination (see Policy 11C4)
 - Complaints related to sexual harassment (see Policy 11C2)
2. Any employee and/or student of the Kern Community College District may file charges against any student(s) for misconduct. Charges shall be prepared in writing and directed to the College President or designee. Charges should be submitted within ten (10) instructional days after the event takes place. Charges may not be filed after six (6) months from the date of the offense, except under extenuating circumstances.
3. The College President or designee shall within ten (10) instructional days of receiving the charges, conduct an investigation to determine if the charges can be disposed of administratively by mutual consent of the parties involved. Such disposition shall be final, and there shall be no subsequent proceedings. All parties involved shall be notified in writing within ten (10) instructional days of the decision.

If the charges cannot be disposed of by mutual consent, all parties involved shall be notified by the College President or designee of the intent to proceed to a hearing within ten (10) instructional days, and establish a timetable for convening the Student Conduct Hearing Panel.

4. All charges shall be presented to the accused student(s) in written form. A time shall be set for a hearing, within ten (10) instructional days after the student(s) has (have) been notified. For compelling reasons, maximum time limits for scheduling of hearings may be extended for ten (10) additional instructional days at the discretion of the College President or designee.
5. All cases of suspension or expulsion must be accompanied by a prompt hearing held by the Student Conduct Hearing Panel.

Student Conduct Hearing Panel and Hearing Process

Panel Composition

Notification

In all student conduct cases before the Hearing Panel, the Chair of the panel or designee shall prepare and personally deliver or mail a written notice to the parties involved, including the Hearing Panel members, not less than ten (10) instructional days prior to the hearing. Notices personally delivered shall be evidenced by a signed receipt. Finally, the notice shall contain a clear request for the student's response as to whether or not he/she wishes to proceed with the hearing, and a clear indication that no response from the student(s) within five (5) instructional days constitutes a waiver of the hearing option.

Preparation

The Chair of the Hearing Panel or designee shall be responsible for making the necessary arrangements for the hearing. Arrangements shall include: scheduling a room, providing for a tape recorder, providing notice to the parties as indicated above, and any other arrangements.

Challenge

The student(s) accused of misconduct may challenge any member of the Hearing Panel for cause. Grounds for cause include: any personal involvement in the situation giving rise to the charge(s), any statement or act indicating that the person could not serve in an impartial manner. Any challenge must be made not less than five (5) instructional days prior to the hearing. Challenges shall be considered by the College President or designee. If a challenge is upheld by the College President or designee, he/she will direct that an alternate be appointed to the Hearing Panel.

Guidelines for Hearing

Hearings shall be conducted according to the following guidelines:

- Admission of any person to the hearing shall be at the discretion of the Chair.
- The Chair shall call the hearing to order, introduce the parties, announce the purpose of the hearing, and read the alleged violation(s) aloud.
- The accused student(s) shall be given the opportunity to respond to all charges. He/she shall be provided an opportunity to present his/her own defense against the charges and to produce either oral testimony or written affidavits of witnesses on his/her behalf.
- The College, the accused, and the Hearing Panel shall have the privilege of presenting witnesses, subject to the right of cross-examination. Witnesses shall only be identified at the hearing.
- Formal rules of evidence shall not apply. All relevant evidence is admissible, including, but not limited to, statements of witnesses and relevant documents. The Chair shall decide on these matters.
- Pertinent records, exhibits, and written statements may be accepted as evidence for consideration by the Hearing Panel at the discretion of the Chair. Both parties shall be provided the opportunity during the hearing to refute or contest any evidence presented. The Chair will rule on the admissibility of evidence.

Right to Representation

The student(s) and the staff member(s) may represent themselves, or may be represented by another student or staff member.

Right to Advisor

The student(s) have the right to be assisted by any advisor they choose. However, the advisor, while permitted to attend the hearing, shall not be permitted to participate directly in the proceedings. Each party shall be afforded the opportunity to make a closing argument.

After the hearing, the Student Conduct Hearing Panel shall deliberate in private for the purpose of determining whether the accused has violated the Student Conduct Code sections(s) as charged.

The Hearing Panel shall make its decision and/or recommendation(s) based on the preponderance of evidence presented at the hearing. In situations where a consensus cannot be achieved, the decision or recommendation(s) shall be made by a simple majority vote.

There shall be a single verbatim record, such as a tape recording, of all testimony before the Hearing Panel. The record shall be the property of the College and/or District.

The hearing shall be held whether the accused attends or not so that the charges and supporting evidence become part of the official record.

Procedures Subsequent to Hearing

In expulsion for an unspecified time, the student may, after a reasonable time, request the College President to remove the expulsion. If the College President approves the request, he/she shall make that recommendation to the Chancellor or designee who may recommend to the Board that the expulsion be removed. The Chancellor or designee shall notify the student of the Board's action.

Appeals

Under certain circumstances, the accused has the right to appeal the College President's decision. The appeal may be made on the following grounds only:

The Student Conduct Policy and/or Procedures were violated, and the violation resulted in demonstrable unfairness to the accused; or

Relevant new evidence exists which was previously unavailable and which would substantially affect the findings of the Hearing Panel.

Appeals must specify the grounds for the appeal and must be submitted in writing to the College President within:

Five (5) instructional days of written notification of the decision when delivered in person with a signed receipt, or Eight (8) instructional days of written notification of the decision when sent by registered mail and return receipt requested.

Following a review, the College President may affirm the findings or sanction(s), remand for a full or partial rehearing, modify the sanction(s), or dismiss the charge(s) against the student(s). Within ten (10) instructional days after receipt of the written appeal, the College President shall forward to the student(s) and to all parties involved a written notice of his/her decision regarding the appeal. The decision of the College President is final.

DEFINITIONS OF PLAGIARISM AND CHEATING

Definitions: (Quoted from the Regulation at Cal State University, Long Beach, as printed in the its General Catalog dated 1990-91, page 56.)

Definition of Plagiarism--Plagiarism is defined as the act of using the ideas or work of another person or persons as if they were one's own, without giving credit to the source. Such an act is not plagiarism if it is ascertained that the ideas were arrived at through independent reasoning or logic or where the thought or idea is common knowledge.

Acknowledgement of an original author or source must be made through appropriate references, i.e., quotation marks, footnotes, or commentary. Examples of plagiarism include, but are not limited to, the following: the submission of a work, whether in part or in whole, completed by another; failure to give credit for ideas, statements, facts or conclusions which rightfully belong to another; in written work, failure to use quotations marks when quoting directly from another, whether it be a paragraph, a sentence, or even a part thereof; close and lengthy paraphrasing of another's writing or programming. A student who is in doubt about the extent of acceptable paraphrasing should consult the instructor.

Students are cautioned that, in conducting their research, they should prepare their notes by (a) either quoting material exactly (using quotation marks) at the time they take notes from a source; or (b) departing completely from the language used in the source, putting the material into their own words. In this way, when the material is used in the paper or project, the student can avoid plagiarism resulting from verbatim use of notes. Both quoted and paraphrased materials must be given proper citations.

Definition of Cheating--Cheating is defined as the act of obtaining, or attempting to obtain, or aiding another to obtain academic credit for work by the use of any dishonest, deceptive, or fraudulent means. Examples of cheating during an examination include, but are not limited to, the following: copying, either in part or in whole, from another's test or examination; discussion of answers or ideas relating to the answers on a examination or test unless such discussion is specifically authorized by the instructor; giving or receiving copies of an examination without the permission of the instructor; using or displaying notes, "cheat sheets," or other information or devices inappropriate to the prescribed test conditions, as when a test of competence includes a test of unassisted recall of information, skill, or procedure; allowing someone other than the officially enrolled student to represent the same. Also included is plagiarism as defined and altering or interfering with the grading procedures.

It is often appropriate for students to study together or to work in teams on projects. However, such students should be careful to avoid the use of unauthorized assistance, and to avoid any implication of cheating, by such means as sitting apart from one another in examinations, presenting the work in a manner which clearly indicates the effort of each individual, or such other method as is appropriate to the particular course.
